OTTAWA, May, 1906.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC PRINTING AND STATIONERY.

OFFICE OF THE KING'S PRINTER AND CONTROLLER OF STATIONERY,

OTTAWA, May 30, 1906.

The Honourable
R. W. SCOTT, K.C., LL.D.,
Secretary of State.

SIR,—I have now the honour to present a report of the operations of this Department for the last fiscal year as set forth in the detailed statements of the heads of branches appended hereto and to add some more general information brought down to the present date.

It was not known until the Supply Bill was passed at the close of the last session (July 20) to what extent the Printing Bureau was to be enlarged and, of necessity, some time had to elapse before the building operations could be commenced. This prevented the completion of the work before the winter and postponed for another year the anticipated relief from the congestion in the bindery. The roof of the building had to be taken off and could not be completely replaced before the winter. All the reserve stock of Statutes, Hansards and other public documents had to be removed at short notice and, there being no place available to put them in, they were packed solidly into an improvised shed. The absolute impossibility of finding any special volume has caused, and is causing, much inconvenience. No elevator has yet been constructed to the story which is to be the future warehouse for such matter. As soon however as that space becomes available these documents will be once more accessible.

The stock, necessarily very large, of materials for manufacture could not be thus stacked away, for the work of the Bureau had to be carried on the same as if everything were in the most convenient order. This stock consisting of leather, millboard, paper, and such like materials had to be stowed throughout the building and gave the corridors a very untidy appearance which it is hoped will ere long be remedied. The type had to be put into the annex and a part of the new story which had been covered in was used for the clamped up bundles of sheets coming off the press. No other place was to be had and, as they were packed in bundles, the litter of the building operations did not injure them much. Through the precautions of the contractors (who stretched a temporary covering on the upper floor) very little damage occurred; although much anxiety and extra labour was caused by several heavy rainstorms during the summer and fall. It is not without much difficulty and inconvenience that work can be carried on uninterruptedly in a printing office while extensive alterations are going on.

CANADA GAZETTE.

The profit which was occasionally made on this publication has ceased as the extension of the business of the country has caused increased demands for space. The number of charters taken out has largely increased and the new regulations for the publication of railway tariffs, together with an extension of operations in other departments, call for an additional number of pages weekly. Still when it is considered that nearly the whole issue is distributed gratuitously and that no charge is made for the mass of mat ter, such as Orders in Council, public regulations, Militia, Marine, Finance and other departmental notices, the amount of last year's deficit, $573.60, seems small. A custom was rapidly spreading of holding back matter until the last moment of Friday evening and thus causing a large increase of cost for extra hours and often for work all through the night. For this reason, excepting in the case of notices of public importance, matter received after two o'clock p.m. on Friday does not appear in Saturday morning's Gazette. It may be as well to note here that copies of the Gazette, prior to June 30, 1894, cannot now be supplied. The reserves up to that date were kept in a room in the basement of the East Block, under the former King's Printer's office, but an application for a back number for use in a suit-at-law revealed the fact that, the room having been required for some purpose, the whole of these back numbers had been destroyed without communication having been made to this department.

Hansards.

The King's Printer issues eight editions of Hansards. For the House of Commons there are three, viz. :—

1.—The daily unrevised edition ; issued every morning between 9 and 10 o'clock.

2.—The revised edition ; got out day by day and sheet by sheet as corrected. This is the edition generally distributed.

3.—The French edition ; got out day by day and distributed sheet by sheet as translated.

The editions Nos. 2 and 3, unchanged, form also the book editions. A sufficient number of the sheets are reserved and bound up in volumes with indexes after the close of the session.

The Senate has five editions ; viz :—

1—The daily unrevised English edition.

2.—The daily unrevised French edition.

3.—The daily revised English edition.

These are again revised and the sheets as finally printed are put aside and after the close of the session are published with indexes in bound volumes as—

4.—The bound Senate Debates—English.

5.—The bound Senate Debates—French.

The Senate debates are not published so promptly as the debates of the Commons because the conditions of the supply of copy are not the same.

In the Report of this Department for 1901 a statement, in minute detail, was given of the whole process of producing these various editions of the Hansards. It was shown that nowhere else in the world is there a service to equal our Commons Hansard for promptitude and fulness. Extracts from the Hansard of the Imperial Parliament were given complaining of the comparatively slow service there. The extracts in question are at p. IX of the report of 1901. Attention is called to them because the excellence of the Canadian service is not generally recognized, but taken for granted as a common and ordinary thing. The credit for this is not claimed solely for the Printing Bureau but results from the reporters working in concert with the printers and supplying the copy continuously as the debates proceed by the means of a well organized messenger express. It is worthy of note that the bound volumes of the Commons Hansard of last session, in French, were ready four weeks before the English edition.

It cannot be too strongly urged that all questions of delay resolve themselves into one proposition, viz., that a printer cannot print without definite copy. The English daily edition reached its present efficiency by frankly recognizing that fact. What comes down from the reporters is veritable 'copy.' After it began to come complete and in unbroken continuity all difficulty was at an end. As it comes it is printed and published. The whole work is done through the night without the intervention of anyone outside of the Printing Bureau. There is an undivided responsibility and its result is evident. In the case of the revisions it is different. There are the speakers who correct their speeches, the translators who translate them into French and the revisers who revise the proofs. All these do their best but they are outside and independent of the Bureau. In this chain of agencies unavoidable delays must sometimes occur but all delays whatever are charged against the Bureau because it is the last of the series. The service has reached its maximum of promptness and the only possible change is to do away entirely with the revised edition and allow the Bureau to publish the French translation without sending it out to be read. If such a plan were adopted the French speeches would continue as now to appear in the English edition, in the language in which they were spoken and would not be translated at all. In the same report before mentioned of 1901 there is a diary of actual fact setting out the sequence of unavoidable delay when several French speeches occur in one sitting and although under present arrangements the delay would not be so great, a dislocation of sequence could not fail to occur.

The Audit Report.

This Report has this year been issued in three volumes. If the consideration of the Estimates is to depend upon its presentation and the growth of the Dominion continues some change would seem necessary in the method of its preparation. It reached a bulk of 2,754 pages in 1902; but, taking the average bulk of the last four years at 2,500 pages, it is a very heavy task and interferes seriously with the publication of the other departmental reports. It is the first report asked for in Parliament and must be pressed on ahead of the others; but they are required also as much as when the Audit report was confined to its early dimensions of 732 pp. This year a delay occurred in the receipt of the accounts of one of the departments, so the last of the copy could not be got ready until March 7th.

In the Report of this Department for 1901 (at p. XXIV) there are some interesting calculations relative to the amount of type-setting in this publication. The work was measured in the way usual in the trade for plain, catalogue and tabular matter and was found to contain over seventeen million ems. The French version would measure more than as much again. The total average number printed of both versions covers 16,312,500 pp. and required 1,019 reams of double royal printing paper, the total weight of which was 61,140 lb. or 30½ tons. These volumes are for the most part franked by post all over the Dominion so they cost a good sum to the country before they are finally disposed of. The work of gathering, collating and sewing such a mass of matter delays all the other reports and the laying out of the sheets for gathering crowds, during these operations, everything else out of the bindery.

Departmental Reports.

Parliament did not meet until March 8 and the copy for the departmental reports was retarded to correspond. The following table sets forth the chief facts concerning their publication. They were taken up in the order in which the copy came in, for no building the government could erect could provide for doing them all at the same time. An effort was, of course, made to give precedence to the Audit Report but the nature of the matter composing that report demands that the French version should be carried on to a certain extent simultaneously, so as to release the type and utilize the tables, and hands must be detailed to change and set the matter into French. The Reports are now practically all published and the following table shows the dates of receipt of copy, the final signature of proof and the publication :

While the regular annual reports have largely increased in bulk and contain a larger proportion of tabular matter, the number and bulk of other Government issues are steadily growing. During the last few years the following new publications have been inaugurated :

|---|---|
| Trade and Navigation—Unrevised Tables | |
| 368 pp. monthly—annually. . . . . | 4,416 pp. |
| Trade and Commerce Tables | |
| 138 pp. monthly—annually. . . . . | 1,656 pp. |
| Trade and Commerce Bulletin—average | |
| 24 pp. weekly—annually . . . . . | 1,248 pp. |
| Labour Gazette—French and English | |
| 128 pp. monthly each—annually. . . . . | 3,072 pp. |

The publications of many of the departments have increased very rapidly by the issue of 'Bulletins' usually in long numbers. These are constantly being published as new questions arise and new experiments are made. The growth of the Patent Record may be taken as a measure of other increases. In 1891 it was a publication of less than 60 pp. monthly and made an annual volume of 700 pages. The page is now enlarged and contains more matter. The monthly parts run from 220 to 290 pp. and the year 1905 aggregated 3,110 pages. The number for January, 1906, contained 318 pp.

Audit Work.

The work in this branch of the Department has greatly increased. The amounts are given in the tabulated statements, as follows :

|---|---|
| Amount of Advertising accounts audited . . . . . | $102,848 11 |
| " Lithographing, printing, &c. . . . . | 177,902 84 |
| " Intercolonial printing. Audited under 3 Edward VII. cap. 50 . . . . . | 71,235 90 |

All this mass of accounts is examined, measured and certified by a small staff of expert clerks.

Growth of the Stationery Department.

The name of the building 'Government Printing Bureau' very inadequately expresses its functions ; for the Stationery Branch carries on within it a business amounting to nearly a half a million of dollars. A tabular résumé of the growth of this business is given at p. 43. Starting from 1886–7 when the goods sent out amounted to $132,313 the amount in 1904–5 will be seen to have reached a total of $427,783.74. The letters sent out increased in the same period from 3,243 to 19,229 and the packages sent by mail from 4,389 to 22,822.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your most obedient servent,
